A midweek tour based at Stratford-upon-Avon, starting on the Wednesday 21st October 2015 and concluding after the Autumn Lunch on Friday 23 October 2015.

Accommodation is at the 45 bedroomed luxurious, Arden Hotel, 44 Water Side, Stratford-upon-Avon, CV37 6BA, 01789 298682. The hotel is part of the Eden chain and is opposite the Royal Shakespeare Company's Theatres.

RSC program is now released, 11/02/15 and is Henry V in the main theatre and Hecuba in the Swan theatre. The program is a classic and the tickets are likely to be sold out in a very short period of time once the tickets go on sale in March.

For those of you who would like to attend one of the Royal Shakespeare Theatres on the Wednesday evening we have made arrangements for you to enjoy the first two courses of dinner prior to the performance at the hotel. Following the theatre returning for the sweet course together with tea or coffee.

On the Thursday morning we have planned a Back Stage visit of the Theatre, walk to the William Shakespeare Heritage Centre, Shakespeare's Birth place and drive to Ann Hathaway's Cottage (3 miles round trip) and finally parking our cars at the hotel and walking to visit the picturesque Holy Trinity Church, Shakespeare's final resting place.

If the Arts are not on your agenda we have planned a full day's driving for the Thursday using only National Trust properties, Coughton Court, Packwood House, Hanbury Hall, (7 miles into Worcestershire) before returning to the hotel for pre dinner cocktail's and dinner. There is however no obligation to follow any set trail, in typical 20 - Ghost fashion you are free to do whatever you choose.

On the day of our departure, Friday the 23rd October, the tour concludes with a short drive of 11 miles in the morning to the World Famous Hidcote Manor Gardens. The Gardens were created by Major Lawrence Johnston, a wealthy American Horticulturist whose vision of design was unique. Following on from this visit is the Autumn Lunch (2 Miles away) at the home of The Pudding Club, The Three
