Dear Member of The 20-Ghost Club

One Day Event in Herefordshire at Croft Castle– SATURDAY 22nd September 2018

The Club organises One Day events in various parts of the country to encourage members who live locally to be given an opportunity to drive their cars and have an enjoyable day out with the family. The Club have been invited by the National Trust at Croft Castle to display some of our cars, when we will be allocated a suitable parking area close to the main building.

The Grounds at Croft and the Tea rooms open at 10am with the Castle opening at 11am. As we will need to arrange our cars may I suggest that those wishing to display their vehicles should arrive soon after 10am so that our cars are all lined up by 11am. As 2018 is a significant year in anniversary terms, Croft Castle will be commemorating the end of the First World War and also the Representation of the People Act which granted certain women the right to vote. They will be celebrating this important milestone by sharing stories of Croft women through objects and paintings in the collection.

Please visit the Croft Website, in order to establish their program as it develops:-

As you will appreciate after the First World War Rolls Royce had to look to produce a more economic motor car so the Club will be delighted if a large contingency of Small HP cars were present in the Croft Castle line up. The cost to attend this event is £10.00, to cover the cost of insurance. Should anyone attending require accommodation, The 20-Ghost Club has in the past stayed at Brockencote Hall Hotel, Kidderminster, Worcestershire DY10 4PY which is 34 miles east of Croft Castle. Alternatively, if you are driving into Herefordshire from Wales or Shropshire a hotel with reasonable reviews is The Castle House Hotel, Castle Street, Hereford HR1 2NW. I would encourage you to make any bookings direct with the hotel of your choice.

I/We would like to participate in this one day event at National Trust, Croft Castle and Parkland, Yarpole, near Leominster HR6 9PW tour of Worcestershire on SATURDAY 22nd September 2018.
